REGINALD A HOLMES, President of The Holmes Law Firm is one of America's best and most experienced Arbitrators, Mediators and Private Justices. He has been a member of the American Arbitration Association's Large Complex Case Panel since its inception and has a national reputation for success for resolving some of the world's most intractable business and civic disputes across a board range of subject matters including Employment and Labor Law, Intellectual Property and Technology, Entertainment and Sports, Real Estate, International Business, Franchise and Large Complex Business Disputes. He has advised, negotiated, litigated, mediated, arbitrated and lectured on such issues throughout the United States and internationally.

Reg is a certified Collaborative Lawyer and serves on the national and international panels of the American Arbitration Association and is a fellow with both the College of Commercial Arbitrators and the Academy of Distinguished Neutrals. He is the nation's foremost advocate of "Private Justice" as ADR's sole legitimate objective.

He is a former patent attorney and holds an Electrical Engineering degree from the University of Florida and a Law degree from the Georgetown University Law Center. He has held senior executive, managing partner positions with several Fortune 500 corporations and law firms and is very active in national and local civic, community and professional organizations. He has served as President or Chairman of a number of these organizations. He is a past member of the LA County Bar Association Board of Trustees and the executive committee of the State Bar of California's International Law section. He is also a past president of the Langston Bar Association (the African American Bar Association of Los Angeles).

The Holmes Law Firm conducts business operations in California, Chicago, New York, and Atlanta. Additional information on Reg Holmes, the Holmes dispute resolution philosophy and the Holmes Law Firm may be found at www.theholmeslawfirm.com.
